Bone Ash Sky Katerina Cosgrove

Bone Ash Sky is an amazing book, but its certainly not an easy read. It was partly a history book about the Armenian genocide, by the Turks, but it is much more than that. It is a multi faceted book, and I found it a little too complex at times, but I persisted with it and I was rewarded with a deeply satisfying read.

Unravelling the complex thread of love and conflict

Bone Ash Sky is an incredible novel from a unique talent, for fans of quality literature. Katerina Cosgrove's prose is sinuous, pictorial and terrifically controlled. Yet her tale of a multigenerational examination of an ill-fated family is potent, unsettling, politically motivated, vociferous and superbly crafted.
